

TRUCKING THROUGH THE DECADES: 1985 TO 1994

1986

Trimac Transportation, in partnership with Saskatchewan's Lac La Ronge Indian band, creates Northern Resource Trucking.

1987

BOVAR's Swan Hills Treatment Centre, opens as the only facility in Canada able to incinerate, separate and stabilize the most hazardous wastes.

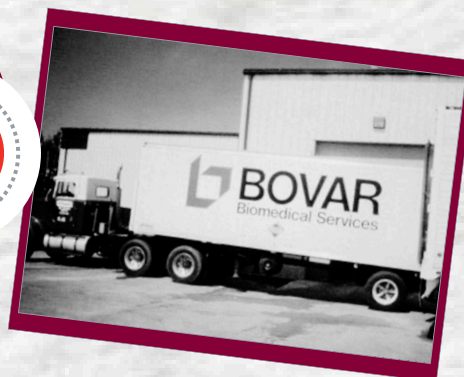

1988

Tony Vanden Brink retires and Jeff McCaig succeeds him as president of Trimac.

1989

Trimac acquires BOVAR Inc. as well as BOVAR's three drilling companies, Hi-Tower, Sedco and Apollo Drilling.

1990

Trimac, a leader in information technology within the trucking industry, provides computer systems to Trimac companies and external clients.

1991

Bud McCaig becomes chair of the board of the Foothills Hospital Foundation.

1993

Trimac acquires Pacific Trucking in Seattle, Wash.

1994

Bud McCaig retires and Jeff McCaig succeeds him as CEO.

